

Durham, NC

jenna@bemeot.com

www.bemeot.com

JENNA MEEHAN, M.S., OTR/L

NEURODIVERGENT OCCUPATIONAL THERAPIST REGISTERED AND LICENSED SINCE 2010. COMMITTED TO DISABILITY JUSTICE ADVOCACY AND CLIENT AND COMMUNITY SUPPORT FOR AUTHENTIC AND EMPOWERED GROWTH.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

All Neurotypes

Co-founder/Co-leader and Summer Camp Organizer • 2022 – Present
Creates and supports neurodiversity-affirming programs and spaces

BE ME Occupational Therapy

Owner and Occupational Therapist • 2021 – Present
OT and support services for neurodivergent-affirming people and orgs

A Place to Grow

Occupational Therapist • 2019 - 2021

Durham County Library

Disability & Accessibility Services Coordinator • 2019 - 2021

Durham Public Schools

Occupational Therapist • 2018 – 2019

The Aspen Center

Occupational Therapist • 2015 – 2018

Developmental Therapy Associates

Occupational Therapist • 2013 – 2019

Heartland Rehabilitation Services

Occupational Therapist • 2012 – 2013
Serving Pulaski County Schools

Holmdel Public Schools

Occupational Therapist • 2011 - 2012

Family Resource Associates

Occupational Therapist • 2010 - 2012

EDUCATION

Master of Science in Occupational Therapy 2009

Bachelor of Science in Health Sciences 2008

James Madison University

COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP

Alliance for Equitable Disability Inclusion in Education (AED in ED)

Co-leader in partnership with DPS Foundation

Community Partner Development Course 2023

Student in certificate program presented in collaboration with North Carolina Central University (NCCU) and the City of Durham

Early Intervention Research Group 2023-2025

Advisory Board Member at Northwestern University led by Dr. Meg Roberts, Jordan Lee, and Dr. Morénike Giwa Onaiwu to co-create early childhood autism research that prioritizes the needs of Autistic people and their families for respect and understanding for all people.

